DIED -- On the 5th of May on the Steamhoat Mary, fifteen miles below Glasgow, on the Missouri river, GEORGE W. NICHOLS, of Buffalo. New York, aged eighteen years, and eldest son of Samuel Nichols of the same place. The deceased was in company with his father, going to California. About daylight the deceased was violently attacked by gress failed; at 2 o'clock he expired, retaining the Cholera, and every effort to stop its profortitude, faculties of mind and speech within a moment of his last breath. A short time before he expired, he remarked to his father, that he had the fullest confidence, that God in his kind providence would be with us on this critical and trying occasion. Soon after he said, oh father, I cannot speak, I have such pain around my chin and throat, he then expired and breathed the last time, ten hours after the first severe attack.

On the 17th uit., of consumption, in the 29th year of his age, Duct L. N. HULSE, at the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. Jonatan Bozarth, of this county. The deceased was an exemplary member of the Christian Church, and died in the hope of a happy resurrection from the sleep of death, to immortality and eternal life.
